

The University of New Brunswick
SCHOOL OF GRADUATE STUDIES

EXAMINERS' ASSESSMENT OF Ph.D. in INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES COMPREHENSIVE EXAMS

Name of Candidate:

Title of Comprehensive:

The Comprehensive examination(s) for the Ph.D. programme in Interdisciplinary Studies must demonstrate the candidate's competence to undertake and complete independent research and/or demonstrate significant knowledge in the candidate's field of study. The comprehensive examination(s) should show that the candidate is knowledgeable about published material in the field.

Given the above, the School of Graduate Studies requests that you complete your review of the candidate's written and/or oral examination by checking one or more of the following applicable recommendations and by providing a summary outlining the reasons for that recommendation. This assessment should then be forwarded to the Director of Graduate Studies (Dean) in the School of Graduate Studies.

We have reached the following decision(s):

1. _____ The Comprehensive written examination is acceptable.
2. _____ The Comprehensive oral examination is acceptable.
3. _____ The Comprehensive written exam is unacceptable and the candidate should re-sit the exam at a future date not to exceed 6 months from the unsuccessful submission.
4. _____ The Comprehensive oral exam is unacceptable and the candidate should re-sit the exam at a future date not to exceed 6 months from the unsuccessful exam.

COMMENTS: (Please indicate if this is the first or second attempt at the examination.)
