

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW BRUNSWICK

Permission to Register for Full-time Students

Full-time students must pay an additional $100 administration fee and complete the online application form.

Online@UNB is designed to provide university courses through guided independent study for individuals who are not currently served by classroom-based classes. Online@UNB is open to students who are studying full-time on campus contingent upon certain conditions. To register for a course offered through Online@UNB and to have the tuition covered by full-time student fees, the student must complete this form, obtain the necessary approval and return the completed form to the College of Extended Learning, 2nd floor of the Wu Centre on the UNB Fredericton Campus.

Course Number: _____ Course Title: _____

Expected Start Date: _____ Expected Completion Date: _____

Name: _____ last first initial student number

Local Address _____ no. & street phone: day city postal code phone: evening

Degree Program: _____ UNB email ID: _____ Personal email address: _____

State why you need to take this course while enrolled as a full-time student: _____

Student Signature: _____ Date: _____

APPROVAL

Faculty Advisor: _____ Date: _____

Dean of Faculty Offering Course (if applicable): _____ Date: _____

UNB Saint John Students must also have approval from their faculty advisor.

UNB SJ Faculty Advisor _____ Date _____

Please note: Full-time students attempting to add a 6 credit-hour OALP course to their course load in the fall term must be full-time in the winter term as well or they will be subject to extra fees; Full-time students adding a 6 credit-hour OALP course in the winter term can still do so however, they must have approval from the Dean of the faculty offering the course and they must pay a deposit of 1/2 the tuition of the course they have added; if the course is completed before the end of the academic year (April 30th), the deposit will be refunded. Revised on: September 4, 2009