Master of Arts Theses

- 2008: Derek Pasma. “Assessing the Relation Between Attachment and Psychopathic Traits in a Sample of Adolescents: is It Mediated by Delinquency?” Supervisor: Dr. M.A. Campbell.

• 1999: Shelly Goodwin. "Visual processing disturbances in first-time stroke patients with left or right hemispheric damage to the parietal lobes". Supervisor: Dr. A. Wilson.

• 1998: Glenn Allan Gray. "Does coercion play a significant role in community treatment programs that reduce offender recidivism". Supervisor: Dr. P. Gendreau.

Doctoral Theses

- 2010: Bryn Robinson. "Emerging Adults’ Mental Health: The Influences of Parental Attachment Bonds and Identity Formation Processes". Supervisor: Dr. E. DiTommaso.
- 2008: Claire Goggin. "Is Prison “Personality” Associated with Offender Recidivism?". Supervisors: Dr. L. Best; Dr. P. Gendreau.
- 2006: Paula Smith. "The Effects of Incarceration on Recidivism: A Longitudinal Examination of Program Participation and Institutional Adjustment in Federally Sentenced Adult Male Offenders.". Supervisor: Dr. P. Gendreau.