

Textbook Buyback Policy

When a textbook has been requested for use by a department, it is entered into the buyback computer and purchased from students at half of the current new price. All textbooks purchased at buyback will be shelved in the Bookstore as used and made available to students at a 25% savings versus new retail pricing.