

Program: Certificate in Occupational Health & Safety

Course: COHS 3230 – Risk Management and Risk Communication

Instructor: Glyn Jones

Course Description:

Risk management and risk communication are fundamental skills critical to the success of every health and safety practitioner. Understanding the elements of risk management, and being able to communicate effectively and systematically about risk are expertise areas of increasing importance in contemporary health and safety program management. This course will provide learners with the skills and knowledge necessary to develop and implement an effective risk management system.

Learning Outcomes:

- Knowledge of risk identification and measurement
- Understand the principles behind risk analysis
- Being able to perform a risk assessment
- Knowing how to implement risk control measures
- Realizing the importance of and guidelines to proper risk communication

Course Outline:

Module 1: Fundamentals of Risk Management

Module 2: Risk vs. Hazard

Module 3: Introduction to Risk Management Processes

Module 4: Risk Measurement and Hazard Identification

This document is for personal use only. It is the property of UNB and is protected by copyright.

Module 5: Risk Analysis

Module 6: Risk Assessment and Decision Making

Module 7: Risk Communication

Academic Requirements:

- 7 module Quizzes worth 80%
- 1 written assignment worth 20%.

Other:

42 hours of contact work

5 BCRSP Points

BCRSP Domain: Risk Management (RM)