

Welcome to UNB Libraries!

lib.unb.ca

Visit these links to get started with learning about our services and how to conduct library research:

- Getting Started research guide <https://guides.lib.unb.ca/guide/99>
- Library Help Videos <https://lib.unb.ca/research/video>

Contact librarian Marc Bragdon mbragdon@unb.ca with your online research needs

Check out Marc's profile and Research Guides:

<https://guides.lib.unb.ca/profile/mbragdon>

UNB Libraries' Research Toolkit

Visit the UNB Libraries' Research Toolkit for a detailed overview of library services and the academic research process. This self-paced set of 3 modules is designed to introduce you to library services and teach you academic research fundamentals.

RESEARCH TOOLKIT

Academic research skills are the foundation of success in your university courses. Completing this Toolkit will help you excel in your studies as you:

- ✓ discover library services and spaces
- ✓ learn effective use of UNB Libraries' resources
- ✓ recognize markers of quality for academic sources
- ✓ leverage these skills in your coursework

UNB Libraries' Research Toolkit

As you work through the videos and other resources provided in the Toolkit, including quizzes, you can earn badges and receive a UNB Libraries' Research Certificate.

How to access the Toolkit: use this link

OR

1. Go to D2L Brightspace in the UNB portal or <https://lms.unb.ca>.
2. Under Free Course Registration, find Libraries' Research Toolkit.
3. Self-register by selecting the Toolkit and choosing "register."

Questions?
askus@unb.ca