

Registration Form

The War of 1812: Commemorating New Brunswick's Role 26-28 September 2012 Saint John and Saint Andrews, N.B.

*Name: _____

Address: _____

_____

Phone Number: _____

Email: _____

Organization: _____

(*Required fields)

Please choose:

Full program (includes lunch and coffee breaks for two days of the conference):

- Standard rate: $75.00
- Student/senior discount: $40.00

Day 1 only:

- Standard rate: $50
- Student/senior discount: $30

Day 2 only:

- Standard rate: $25
- Student/senior discount: $10

Bus to Saint Andrews (space is limited, participants are welcome to travel in their own vehicles)

- Bus fee: $30

Total: $ _____

Payment can be made through credit card or by cheque to the Gregg Centre. Please check which applies:

- Credit card (contact Valerie Gallant, 506-453-4587)
- Cheque (mailed to the Gregg Centre:)

The Gregg Centre
University of New Brunswick
P.O. Box 4400
Fredericton, N.B.
E6L 1C5

For more information, please contact Valerie Gallant (vgallant@unb.ca, 506-453-4587)

Return completed form to:

The Gregg Centre
University of New Brunswick
P.O. Box 4400
Fredericton, N.B.
E6L 1C5
Fax: 506-447-3175

Conference Program

The War of 1812: Commemorating New Brunswick's Role 26-28 September 2012 Saint John and Saint Andrews, N.B.

Wednesday, 26 September

7:00 p.m. - Meet and Greet, HMCS Brunswicker

Hosted by HMCS Brunswicker, Naval Reserve Division. Brunswicker perpetuates the New Brunswick Armed Sloop Brunswicker of 1812. Formerly the US Revenue Cutter Commodore Barry, which was captured by the Royal Navy off Maine in the summer of 1812.

Thursday, 27 September

The auditorium, New Brunswick Museum

9:00-9:20 a.m. - Words of welcome from various dignitaries and conference organizers

9:20-10:30 a.m. - Panel #1: Origins

Chair: Jane Fullerton, Director, New Brunswick Museum

- "The Highway of Nations: How Impressment Made Slavery a Cause of the War of 1812," Dan Hicks, PhD, Alexandria, VA
- "Congressional Angst: Paving a Legislative Road to the War of 1812," Dinah Mayo-Bobee, PhD, East Tennessee State University

10:30 - 10:50 a.m. - Nutrition Break

10:50 - 12:00 p.m. - Panel #2: New Brunswick in the Early Months

Chair: Lee Windsor, Deputy Director, The Gregg Centre for the Study of War and Society

- "'The Wild, Wild East:' The Maine-New Brunswick, Frontier, 1800-1814," David Zimmerman, PhD, University of Victoria, Victoria, B.C.
- "Financing a Ship of War: The Case of the Government Armed Sloop Brunswicker," Glenn Leonard, PhD, University of New Brunswick, Fredericton, N.B.
- "The St. John River Flotilla, 1812-1814," Gary Campbell, PhD, University of New Brunswick, Fredericton, N.B.

12:00 - 1:00 p.m. - Lunch (Catered)

Lunch includes presentation on the conservation of the Colours of the 104th (NB) Regiment of Foot

1:15 - 2:30 p.m. - Panel #3: War on Trade

Chair: Cheryl Fury, University of New Brunswick, Saint John, N.B.

- "Outside the Acceptable Means of Deception: Privateers, Fraud, and the War of 1812," Edward Martin, PhD Candidate, University of Maine.
- "A Band of Ruthless Desperados: Virginia Privateers in the War of 1812," Joe Mosier, Maine.
- "New Brunswick Privateers: By Hook, Crook, and Account," Faye Kert, Ottawa, Ontario.

3:00 - 4:30 p.m. - Field Trip: Tour of Carleton Martello Tower, National Historic Site

Field trip includes a presentation and guided tour on the fortifications of the port of Saint John, 1600-1954.

7:30 p.m. - Keynote Address, "The Key to Victory: The 'Battle of the Atlantic,' 1812-1814"

Dr. Andrew Lambert, Kings College, University of London. Dr. Lambert is the author of The Challenge: Britain Against America in the Naval War of 1812. Keynote address and following reception open to non-conference participants. All are welcome to attend. (Auditorium of the New Brunswick Museum.)

Friday, 28 September

9:00 - 10:00 a.m. - Panel #4: The War on Land

Chair, Brent Wilson, Senior Editor, The Gregg Centre for the Study of War and Society, UNB, Fredericton, N.B.

- "New Brunswick's 104th Regiment of Foot," Gary Hughes, New Brunswick Museum, Saint John, N.B.
- "The Invasion of Eastern Maine, 1814," Robert Dallison, Fredericton, N.B.

10:20 - 11:45 - Panel #5: Implications and Consequences?

Chair: Marc Milner, Director, The Gregg Centre for the Study of War and Society, UNB, Fredericton, N.B.

- "The Battle for the Bay," Josh Smith, PhD, US Merchant Marine Academy, New York.
- "Acadians and the War," Maurice Basque, institut d'études acadiennes, Moncton, N.B.
- "The Legacy of the War of 1812 for New Brunswick," Brent Wilson, The Gregg Centre, UNB, Fredericton, N.B.

12:30 p.m. - Departure by bus for Saint Andrews' program (roughly 1.5 hours travel)

No pre-registration required but seats on the bus are limited. Those with their own vehicles who wish to make their own way to Saint Andrews are welcome to do so.

2:00 p.m. - Walking tour: Saint Andrews and the War of 1812."

Led by "Robert Pagan, Esquire:" Loyalist, merchant, privateer, and land owner. Tour includes key sites for the War of 1812, including Fort Tipperary, the Blockhouse and battery, as well as accounts of the role of the town in the war as a free ports, smuggler's base, and key British base on the Passamaquoddy River. The Ross Museum will be open for the group to visit, as will the courthouse and gaol. Tour sponsored by the Charlotte County Archives. Tour is approximately 2 hours and will be followed by drinks and dinner in local establishments.

8:30 p.m. - Return to Chateau Saint John. Conference ends.