Creating a Module

• From within the Content tool, make sure you have the Table of Contents selected. Then, click to place your cursor in the Add a module... text box.
• Type in a name for the module.
• Click anywhere outside the text box or hit Enter (Return on a mac) on your keyboard. The module will appear under the Table of Contents on the left side of the page.