

UNIVERSITY OF NEW BRUNSWICK

Allan P. Stuart Award for Excellence in Teaching

Attention: STUDENTS, FACULTY AND ALUMNI

The Award: is dedicated to the late Dr. Allan P. Stuart and is to honour persons who are representative of outstanding teaching achievement at the University of New Brunswick.

Eligibility: A candidate will normally have taught a minimum of two 3-credit hour courses, or equivalent, during the calendar year in which the nomination is made. It is not expected that the nominees should excel in all criteria listed on the nomination, but they should be qualified in most categories. Individuals are not eligible if they have been previous recipients of the Award.

Nomination: Candidates for the Award are proposed and recommended to the Common Senates Teaching Awards Committee by students, faculty and alumni of the University.

The Nomination Form is available from the Centre for Enhanced Teaching and Learning, Fredericton; the Vice-President (Saint John); the Student Council, Saint John or Fredericton; and Faculty Offices. Nominators must provide information for each question on the nomination form. An incomplete form will not be considered valid. The Committee places little value on long lists of signatures supporting a nomination; however, further letters or paragraphs of support from a variety of sources (current and former students, faculty members, alumni, Department Chairs or Deans) can enhance a nomination.

Send nominations to the Centre for Enhanced Teaching and Learning, Eaton Multimedia Centre, Room 125 Marshall d'Avray Hall, UNB Fredericton, or the Vice-President (Saint John) Room 110 Oland Hall, UNB Saint John
