

Planning Guide — Graduate Certificate in Bilingual and Multilingual Education

University of New Brunswick, Faculty of Education

Certificate course requirements:

15 credit hours (5 courses)

- ED 6103 Foundations of Bilingual and Multilingual Education
- ED 6110 Teaching and Learning in Multilingual Contexts
- Three (3) electives from the list below

Elective Options

ED6009 Responsive Leadership for Culturally Diverse Schools
ED6106 Literacy Instruction in Bilingual and Multilingual Contexts
ED6112 Inclusive Second Language Education
ED6115 Cultural Diversity in Schools

ED6108 Special topics in bilingual and multilingual education
ED6109 Special topics in bilingual and multilingual education
ED6888 MEd Capstone Course (in the area of bilingual and multilingual education)

ED6108 & ED6109: Special topics courses. These are often offered to focus on a current issue or research focus. These courses are only available by special arrangement with a particular faculty member working in the field of bilingual and multilingual education.

1. In the table immediately above, the courses preceded by an asterisk (*) may not be offered every year.
2. Exceptions to the prescribed programs above may be considered in consultation with your advisor/supervisor with the approval of the Associate Dean.