

Product Demonstration of CARIS Hydrographic Production Database

Implement a state of the art database solution and eliminate data redundancy with CARIS Hydrographic Production Database (HPD). CARIS HPD offers an integrated suite of products that can manage complex spatial and attribute data in a seamless database, providing for simultaneous data access and processing by multiple users. Efficiency is maximized with features being stored only once, with the ability to create multiple cartographic representations for different types of products.