Please indicate that you have read and agree to the following:

I am aware of the Three Minute Thesis (3MT®) competition eligibility guidelines, and I agree to follow the rules of the competition as listed on the UNB 3MT® website. I understand that the top UNB finalist will proceed to the Eastern Regional Competition.

The 3MT competition will be open to the public and presentations may be recorded and broadcast to interested persons through media, including the internet. The University of New Brunswick may also make and retain photocopies, photographs, and audio-video recordings of the 3MT® competition for promotional purposes.

Because the competition is public, judges, reviewers, staff, or the audience will not be asked to sign a non-disclosure agreement and presenters should not assume any right of confidentiality in the work presented. If your research includes proprietary or culturally sensitive material or if patent is being considered, we advise you to consult with your supervisor(s) about your entry before registering for the 3MT® competition.

If your research is being conducted in conjunction with an outside agency or involves a contract or collaborative research agreement with an outside sponsor, we advise you to discuss related contractual terms of confidentiality and intellectual property with your supervisor(s) before registering for the 3MT® competition.
