

CHECKLIST FOR RESEARCH-BASED STUDENTS

FULLY ELECTRONIC SUBMISSION OF FINAL DISSERTATION, THESIS OR REPORT AND BINDING OF THESIS COPIES

Students are required to submit a PDF copy fully electronically in order to complete degree requirements. The Graduate School no longer accepts submission of final paper copy of Thesis, Report and PhD dissertation to complete degree requirements.

1. Formatting: Prior to the electronic submission of final PDF copy of your Master's Thesis, Report, or PhD dissertation, it is very important that the formatting conforms according to the formatting regulations & guidelines or the School of Graduate Studies will not accept your electronic copy. The Electronic Theses & Dissertations (ETD) website has templates and training resources: <https://www.unb.ca/etd/index.html>. Please contact rob.glencross@unb.ca Digital Publishing Assistant at the Harriet Irving Library, if you need assistance with formatting.

Please make sure to review & follow the formatting guidelines prior to sending a PDF to Graduate Studies to review. If there are many or major formatting issues, Graduate Studies will ask you to look at the guidelines before we can advise what needs to be changed: <https://www.unb.ca/gradstudies/current/resources/regulations-and-guidelines/index.html>

2. Submission of Final Electronic Copy: Once your supervisor(s) approves all corrections are made after the defence, please send a PDF copy of your Master's Thesis, Report or PhD dissertation, it is very important to send a PDF to gradthesis@unb.ca so that SGS can review the formatting. Once formatting approved by SGS you will be instructed to submit a final PDF document version to gradthesis@unb.ca.

The PDF copy will be processed and placed on the ETD secure site. The Thesis, Report or Dissertation will be made available (unless an Embargo is requested) on the UNB Scholar Research Repository: <https://unbscholar.lib.unb.ca/>. The HIL Archives & Special Collections will be able to access the PDF copy on the ETD Secure Site in order to print paper copy for archival purposes.

3. Embargo request: If a student wants to delay access to the Thesis, Report or PhD Dissertation the student can still submit electronically and request an embargo up to 4 years. The embargo can be extended by sending an e-mail to gradthesis@unb.ca before the end of embargo. The embargo reasons may include Patent Application, Publication of thesis as a book, Sensitive Nature of the contents. An embargo is subject to the approval of your Supervisor(s). Note: You will need to complete & sign (incl. supervisor signature) the UNB Libraries Thesis/Report/Dissertation Deposit form. You can indicate justification and month/year embargo is to end on the Harriet Irving Library deposit form.
