- The BA Degree: To earn a Bachelor of Arts degree, a student must successfully complete a minimum of 40 term-courses.
- Term-course: A term-course will be offered either in Fall term (FA: Sept. to Dec.) or Winter term (WI: Jan. to April). Term-courses end in a number other than zero, such as COMS 1001, HIST 1401 or UNIV 1003. These courses count as 1 term- course.
- IMPORTANT: Lab portions of courses will NOT count as a term-course toward the minimum 40 term-courses needed for a BA degree. A UNB course number, not lab number, ending in 1 to 9 shall be counted as a maximum of 1 term-course.

How many courses do I take?

Full-time students usually take 10 term-courses per academic year (September to April), or 5 term-courses each term. Students typically take four years to complete a BA degree. Taking less than 5 term-courses in a term will extend the time it takes to complete the BA degree beyond 4 years.

Certificate in General Studies students also use these instructions to select up to a maximum of 2 term-courses in both the FA and WI terms unless accepted on a full-time basis.

What courses should I take?

You get to choose from a broad selection of courses from the Humanities, Languages, Social Sciences, Sciences, and even some Business courses.
