Please note that meeting the minimum requirements for admission does not guarantee acceptance into the honours program. Admittance is competitive and based on availability of supervisors.

Honour students may be eligible to apply for an accelerated Master's program (see link <https://www.unb.ca/gradstudies/current/financial/scholarships/new-funding-programs.html>) . Students would typically have an existing research relationship with their supervisor and extend their honours project into a graduate research project.

I am interested in the accelerated research-based Masters program at UNB Saint John

YES _____ NO _____

If you are interested in this possible option, please discuss this with the potential faculty members who would be supervising you. If you both decide that the program is suitable, a separate graduate application will need to be submitted in the Summer of 2025.
