

Structure of persuasive speech

Name: _____ / 20

1. Advanced the theme (general sentence)
 2. Raised the subject (specific sentence)
 3. Added some sentences to list sub-themes
 4. Added a sentence that took audience to the first point
 5. Each idea was explained in a paragraph
 6. Each idea was explained or illustrated by examples
 7. Started with a concluding sentence or relative marker
 8. Summarized main points
 9. Tried to persuade audience of opinion one last time
 10. Raised a new subject related to theme (a new subject)
- Bonus: Relative marker at beginning of each paragraph