The Board of Governors of the University of New Brunswick has agreed that its meetings may be open to visitors, particularly members of the academic community, with the following regulations:

- a) The Board reserves the right to hold closed meetings, or to go into closed session, when the nature of its business requires.
- b) Without infringing upon the generality expressed in regulation (a) above, the Board will normally consider the following matters in closed session:
 - 19.b.1 information the confidentiality of which is protected by law, by University regulation or policy, or in accordance with collective agreements;
 - 19.b.2 personal information, including, but not limited to, records of individual students or information regarding individual faculty or staff members;
 - 19.b.3 the access to or security of particular buildings, other structures or systems, including computer or communication systems, or the access to security methods employed to protect such buildings, other structures or systems;
 - 19.b.4 information the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to result in a financial loss to the University or prejudice the competitive position or interfere with or prejudice contractual or other negotiations of the University;
 - 19.b.5 the proposed or pending lease, acquisition or disposition of land for a university purpose;
 - 19.b.6 information that could violate the confidentiality of information obtained from the Government of Canada or from the Province or a third party;
 - 19.b.7 information concerning advice or legal opinions provided to the University;
 - 19.b.8 litigation or potential litigation affecting the University, including a matter before an administrative tribunal;
 - 19.b.9 labour and employment matters, including, but not limited to, negotiation of collective agreements;
 - 19.b.10 information gathered in the course of a University or law enforcement investigation.
